Study Buddy
National Science & Technology Education Partnership

National Science & Technology Education Partnership

- 30 year old 501 (c)(3) nonprofit organization
- Mission: Foster greater success and interest in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math) disciplines in our nation's schools.

“At a time when the nation is crying out for students to pursue successful careers in the STEM fields (often teachers or industry workforce), it is vitally important to nurture the mathematical training of students.”

*Denny Gulick
Professor of Mathematics
University of Maryland*

“Student G is a junior in my H.S. Geometry class. Her self esteem was very low. She was failing my class last semester. Then, she became hooked on Study Buddy. She ended up passing the course. This semester she passed the first two tests. Today, she was helping the students as we assessed the work from the test I was so proud of her. She thanked me. So, I thank you.”
