
5. What could happen to you in the future if you keep choosing not to follow the rules in class?

6. What happens to adults who cannot follow basic rules?

7. Explain why you should value your education. Remember, your education is what you make of it.

8. Think about why you broke the rules in your classroom. Check all that apply:

- I wanted attention from my classmates or my teacher
- I was frustrated with the work and did not know how to appropriately ask for help
- I wanted to get out of doing my work
- I was finished with my work and was bored
- I was scared about not being successful on my assignment so I didn't start it
- I am angry about something that is going on in class (not the work)
- I am angry/upset about something outside of class (at home or in other classes)
- I don't feel well
- I wanted to avoid the teacher or someone in my class
- I wanted to show the class that I was tough or in control

Return to (Teacher's Name) and continue on your class work. You are NOT to return to class. Do not put your head down. If you choose to be disruptive you will get a referral.
